FROM THE EAST

My Brethren All:

As 2019 comes to a close, so does my honor of sitting in the East as your Worshipful Master. I am truly thankful for the privilege.

Thank you to all my officers, you are all amazing. There are none better in Freemasonry. Ashlar Lodge is in firm safe hands for years to come.

Just remember not to rush, that seat in the East isn't going anywhere. It will be there when you are ready. Enjoy the Chairs as your go through them and learn the lessons each chair has for you.. The journey through the chairs is a personal experience; allow it to change you.

To the Most Worshipfuls, Right Worshipfuls, Past Masters, and Brethren all who were so quick and steadfast with advice anytime it was needed, I sincerely thank you. You are all invaluable to me.

Thank you., W.: Bo Bozard for always giving me the "real" answer and W.: Charlie Metcalf for always being there to hold a plumb line on me.

During the maelstrom of life, Freemasonry has been the anchor in some pretty rough seas. And Ashlar is always a safe harbor. So Thank You Ashlar Lodge for accepting a terrified "dread head" who sometimes smelled lie low tide into the fold. . . You have truly made him a much better man so far.

Bro. Kenny, I would wish you luck, but you won't need it. You've got a great line behind you and plenty of us waiting for anything you need. Remember, when in doubt, call Bro. David. Or just wait, he'll be calling you, anyway.

Sincerely & Fraternaly

W.: Matt

The Night Before Christmas, Down At the Lodge (From The Midnight Mason)

'Twas the Night before Christmas, and down at the Lodge
Not a gavel was stirring, and in the hodge-podge

Of aprons and jewels and chairs East and West
you could savor the silence, most gladly divest

All metal and mineral, it mattered not,
since Christmas was nigh and the coals were still hot

In the hearth of your homestead, all Masons abed,
as visions of trestle boards danced in their head;

When up on the roof there arose such a clatter,
Our Tiler jumped up to see what was the matter!

He picked up his sword and ran fast to the door,
three knocks shook the panels - he wondered 'What for?'

He answered the knocking with, raps of his own,
and once the door opened he saw, with a moan

Of delight it was Santa, all jolly and red
Except for one notable feature Instead!

Upon his large finger lie wore what we knew was compass and square on a background of blue!

'Why Santa!' he shouted and lowered his blade
'I see you're a Mason!' the Tiler relayed.

He looked toward the Master's most dignified chair
and said, voice near trembling, 'Most Worshipful there Is a Gentleman properly clothed at the gate!'

The Master replied, 'Let's allow him - but wait!'

You tell me a Gentleman, but I don't see
His Apron beneath that red suit, can it be

Our visitor hasn't been properly raised?
Must we offer a test that is suitably phrased?

'I do beg your pardon,' old' Santa said quick
As he pulled up his coat and displayed not a stick

But a cane with, engraving, two balls did appear and oh, what an apron, he wore and held dear!

Adorned like the Master' complete with a sign
Of "Lodge Number One, the North Pole" on one line!
"Now let man enter," the Master declared,
and once in the Lodge room the Brethren all stared,

For Santa was wearing a jewel not seen for many a century - there in between

The fur of his coat and the splendid red collar gleamed two golden reindeer that shone like a dollar!

"It's Donner and Blitzen, who, I must confess
Are actually images brought from the West

By my Warden, a craftsman like none in the world!"
And with a great laugh from his bag he unfurled

An ear of fine corn and some oil from the east,
"My friend I have plenty, tonight we will feast

On all that is good! We are Masons, kind sir!"
A murmur went throughout the Lodge, quite a stir,

As presents and promises flew from his sack
This Santa, a Mason, showed he had a knack

For making this Christmas the best you could glean,
And soon even Deacons were laughing, they'd seen

On this very night only happiness reigned!
This jolly Saint Nicholas quickly explained

That only a Mason could be so inclined to make all kids happy, make all people find

A Christmas so special, yes, Santa was right!

Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good night!
